"What sort of fish goes well with toast?"

Bestiary CD

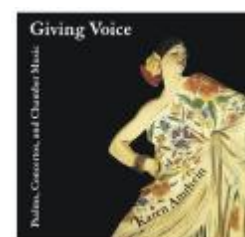

With more than an hour of spine-tingling chamber music, Bestiary is a real bargain at only $12 (incl. s&h)! The album includes the long-awaited recording of Event Horizon in its original quintet version, the title sextet, and a new piece for toy instruments!

What a great gift for yourself, your family, and your friends!

More great albums available from H.L.M.P.

The answer to this issue's riddle is:

"jellyfish!"

“What kind of bird wears a wig?”

This issue's riddle is the same as last issue's, yet with a different answer!

The answer was offered by our friend Burton Zipser.

August 29th Concert

The Sundays at Central concert series at Central Presbyterian, 7308 York Road, Towson, MD 21204 is pleased to offer a special summer concert:

Sunday, August 29th, at 3 o'clock
Friday, August 27th, at 8 o'clock (Preview)

The free concert includes Bach's Concerto BWV 1060; Debussy's Dances Sacrée et Profane for Harp and Ensemble; a half-dozen works by Karen, including her Bestiary, an evocation of five mythical animals as described in a Medieval book of beasts – a suite that is by turns lovely, noble, playful, mysterious, and rousing; plus some musical surprises!

Joel Borrelli-Boudreau will conduct the septet of musicians who are also members of the church: Mairee Pantzer (flute), Karen Amrhein (clarinet), Andréa Picard (violin), Geoff Knorr (cello), Kimberly Booher (harp), & Stephen Amrhein (piano).

Coming Soon . . .

Stay tuned to this Happy Lemon channel for news of our forthcoming CD – the sixth from H.L.M.P.! We anticipate the album will be available for sale in early autumn.

The CD is to include Bestiary for Chamber Ensemble (a highlight of the August concert advertised in the previous column), Sonata for Flute and Piano, Isaiah 40 for SATB and piano, the Passacaglia on "Psalm 51" for clarinet and piano, and much more!

What a perfect gift for that special someone!
